

Financial Tips To Enhance Your Daily Life

Tip 1 Add Your Netflix Payments to Experian Account for Free & Boost Credit Score

It's a wonderful opportunity to boost your credit score by adding your Netflix payments to Experian account for free. Earlier, you were allowed to add utility and phone bills. But, as per the new rule, effective from July 27, 2020, consumers are allowed to include their Netflix on-time payment history on their Experian Boost accounts.

The process is very simple, you just have to;

- 1) Connect your bank account(s) you use for paying off your bills,

2) Select and verify the positive payment data,

3) Get your updated FICO Score.

Remember, this does not apply to the other credit bureaus Equifax and TransUnion. More than 4 million consumers have already connected their accounts to Experian Boost over the year and around 29 million points boosted to date. So, if you haven't connected your Netflix account till now, do it asap.

Tip 2 SCAM Alert! Don't Pay Money To The Advertisers For Getting The Job

We are going through financial hardship due to this pandemic. A huge number of people have lost their job or pay cuts. People are desperately searching for new jobs. The worst part is, scammers are taking advantage of this situation. They are applying several tricks to harass people. As per the report, they are advertising jobs and vacancies online, in newspapers, and even on TV and radio like the ways legitimate employers do. And asking for money in return before getting the job. Never be a part of it and don't share your credit card or banking details.

Tip 3 Debt Collectors Cannot Seize Your Stimulus Checks For Federal, State, or Private Debt

A piece of very good news is waiting for all of us. As per the proposed law, the HEALS Act, it is illegal if debt collectors seize your stimulus checks any more because of federal, state, or private debt. The only exception is the past-due child support debt. If the HEALS Act becomes law then it will be beneficial for us. The individuals earning less than $75,000 and couples earning less than $150,000 per year, will get a check of $1200 and $2400 respectively. Along with that, we can get another $500 for the dependent regardless of their age. The best part is that the debt collectors can not seize the stimulus checks for paying off debts.
