Tip 1 Apply For Unemployment Benefits to Get An Extra $600 During COVID-19 Pandemic

Lost job due to COVID 19? Inform the government to get an extra $600 per week. Other than the weekly unemployment benefits, you will receive an extra $600 a week from the date you lose your job through July 31, 2020. The state's unemployment benefits have also extended by 13 weeks with the help of CARES Act.

So, if you lose your job due to coronavirus, apply for unemployment benefits now. In some states, you have to prove that you were employed and performing work before applying for unemployment benefits. The application procedure is very simple. You can apply online, by phone or visit through the state in which you worked.

Tip 2 No Eviction & Extra Charges During This Pandemic

Are you afraid that you might have to leave your rented house due to non-payment during this pandemic? Have you got any eviction notice or extra charges from the landlord? Don't worry!! You won't be evicted and pay any extra charges during this pandemic. According to CARES Act #4024(b) during the 120-day period beginning on the Act's March 27, 2020 enactment date (until July 25, 2020), the lessor of a "covered dwelling" may not file a court action for eviction and also prohibits from charging fees, penalties, or other charges to the tenant related to such nonpayment of rent. As per 4024(C) even after this said period the lessor cannot require the tenant to vacate until it gives the tenant a thirty-day notice to quit.

Tip 3 Get REAL ID If You're Planning for Filing Bankruptcy

Are you planning for filing bankruptcy soon? If yes, then you have to collect the state-issued REAL ID driver's license or identification card. Anyone entering the federal buildings or federal courthouses must carry the REAL ID, otherwise, he/she won't be allowed to enter. The rule extends to bankruptcy filers who must attend mandatory appearances at the federal courthouse, such as the 341 meetings of creditors required by all individual filers, or a Chapter 13 confirmation hearing. Initially, the date of compliance with the REAL ID Act was set for October 1, 2020. But, due to the outbreak of Covid19, President Trump has announced to increase the deadline.
