

Don't Be Goofed Up: Verify Who's Calling Before Giving Account Details

Got a call from a government agency? Hang up right now. Don't confirm account details. This is ID spoofing. The latest scam in the block.

Fraudsters are using a new trick to clip ignorant people. They are using fake caller ID to make you believe that you're receiving a call from a government agency. Recently, a scammer called an individual using the phone number of an FTC employee. So, it doesn't take a second guessing to know that fraudsters don't care about anything.

Don't rely on caller ID and give your account details. Take these steps to handle these calls.

- Hang up if you get a call from a strange phone number
- Hang up if you receive a strange call from the government
- Never send money to someone who calls you out of the blue

Updated on: Oct. 31, 2016

Download 150+ Money Saving Tips

Privacy Policy | Contact Us

Copyright © 2016 ovlg.com 4966 El Camino Real STE 225, Los Altos, CA 94022 Toll Free: 800-530-OVLG

Disclaimer: The contents of this newsletter are not intended to establish an attorney-client relationship, provide the reader with legal advice, or substitute for legal advice from an attorney.

If you no longer wish to receive our emails, click the link UNSUBSCRIBE.