

Spot A Debt Collector By Asking The Last 4 Digits Of Your SSN

Did you get a call from a debt collector recently? Are you wondering if he is a genuine debt collector? If so, then just use this simple tip.

Ask the debt collector to reveal the last 4 last digits of your SSN. A true debt collector would never answer this question since it is against FDCPA laws. But, a fake debt collector would either try to give an answer or might claim that he doesn't have the information in his file.

Don't confirm your personal information over the phone. A fake debt collector may try to know your SSN or other details for stealing your identity.
