

Financial Tips To Enhance Your Daily Life

Tip 1 Covid-19: Protect Yourself From Financial Scammers

Scammers are always active to take advantage of any turmoil situation of society. And, in the emergence of the Corona Virus (Covid-19), they are using the fears surrounding us. They are sending emails to people claiming they are from the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention (CDC) or experts having information about the virus. Please don't click on the links from any unknown sources claiming such things! They're sending a virus to your computers. Keep distance from any online offers claiming for vaccinations, as there are no such vaccinations invented by the scientists. And, please do proper research before making any donations, charity or crowdfunding to any site or organization.

For any information regarding Covid-19, visit the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention (CDC) and the World Health Organization (WHO). Stay safe and follow Doctor's guidelines to defeat the Corona Virus.

Tip 2 File A Lawsuit If Creditors Garnish More Than 25% Of Your Weekly Earnings

Good news for the Californian. The new California Finance Law implemented a new law that helps debtors to protect themselves against wage garnishment. As per the law, the lender or creditor can not take away more than 25% of your weekly earnings or 50% of the amount by which the debtor's earnings exceed 40 times the minimum hourly wage.

Tip 3 File Bankruptcy Without Paying Attorney Fees

Are you wondering how to pay for bankruptcy when you don't have money? Well, you may be able to get the filing fees for Chapter 7 bankruptcy waived by the courts. In order to qualify for this, the bankruptcy law states that you must have a combined family income of less than 150% of the poverty line. The court will mail you if you qualify for the waiver.
